ALAMODOME

The Alamodome - which had its grand opening on May 15, 1993 - is unlike any other stadium in the world due to its design and versatility. The facility has a cable-suspended roof, a retractable seating system, a flexible floor grid system, formal entries and large food court areas.

The Spurs moved into the Alamodome prior to the start of the 1993-94 season. They kicked off their first year in the facility in grand fashion as an NBA opening night record crowd of 36,523 was on hand on 11/5/93 as the Spurs beat Golden State 95-90 in the first regular season NBA game ever played in the Dome. Over the last two seasons, more than two million fans have seen the Spurs play in the Alamodome.

But the Alamodome is used for more than the Spurs. With the addition of the Alamodome, the city of San Antonio is set to become a major player in the sports world. The first major sporting event in the Alamodome was the U.S. Olympic Festival-'93 which took place in July of 1993. Since that time the Dome has hosted NCAA football and basketball games, NFL games, NHL games, world-championship boxing matches and numerous concerts. Wayne Gretzky and the L.A. Kings, Emmitt Smith and the Dallas Cowboys and Mick Jagger and the Rolling Stones are among those who have played in the Alamodome over the last two years. In addition, San Antonio, and the Dome, are the home of the annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

But the best is yet to come. In February of 1996, the eyes of the world will be on San Antonio and the Alamodome, as the city hosts the 1996 NBA All-Star Weekend. The following year the Alamodome will host a Region Final of the 1997 NCAA Basketball Tournament before serving as the home of the 1998 NCAA Final Four.

The Alamodome has several configurations, ranging from 5,000 seats for small conventions to over 65,000 for major football games. For Spurs games, the Alamodome holds 20,662 on a nightly basis. In addition, for selected games, the Spurs open the upper level of the facility, pushing capacity to 35,888.

In its basketball configuration the Alamodome features 32 luxury suites and a section of over 3,500 club level seats that provide Spurs fans with a pair of upscale viewing options. The Spurs are the only NBA team to play its entire home schedule in a domed stadium.

The total cost of the Alamodome was $186 million and, thanks to a half-cent sales tax that was in effect from 1989-94, the Dome is completely debt free.

BRIG. GEN. ROBERT F. McDERMOTT

Chairman

General Robert McDermott retired from USAA in September of 1993, stepping down as the company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. During his 25 years with the insurance and financial services company, Gen. McDermott helped turn USAA - and the city of San Antonio - into what they are today.

"If I had to pick the one individual who has made the most difference over the past 25 years, it would have to be General McDermott," said former San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell. "He is the one person we could not have done without."

Today, Gen. McDermott serves as the Chairman Emeritus of USAA and as the Chairman of the San Antonio Spurs.

McDermott, and USAA Property Holdings Inc., are two of the 22 investors that purchased the Spurs from Red McCombs on March 26, 1993.

Gen. McDermott joined USAA in 1968. When he became president in 1969, USAA had 2,683 employees and total assets of $207 million. Today, the company has over $33 billion in owned and managed assets and over 16,000 employees. USAA is the nation's fifth largest insurer of private automobiles and the nation's fourth largest homeowners insurer. The company offers its services worldwide and has offices in Frankfurt and London as well as other cities in the United States. In 1993, USAA was named one of the top 10 companies to work for in the best-selling book, "The 100 Best Companies to Work for in America."

Since moving to San Antonio in 1968, Gen. McDermott has worked hard to develop the Alamo City. In 1974, he was elected the Chairman of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce. Then in 1975, he founded the Economic Development Foundation and served as its Chairman until 1980. Today he serves as Chairman Emeritus of the Foundation, which plays a lead role in bringing new business to the city.

Gen. McDermott has also worked to develop the field of biotechnology in San Antonio, realizing that the field would create a viable economic sector for the 21st century. He founded and serves as Chairman of the Texas Research and Technology Foundation which is developing the Texas Research Park. Along with the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio, the TRP forms the core of biotechnology for the city. And to help ensure success, Gen. McDermott has been a major force in getting the University of Texas Board of Regents to develop biotechnology facilities in San Antonio and to offer science and engineering programs to the doctoral level in support of biotechnology.

Gen. McDermott is a native of Boston, Massachusetts and has a bachelor's degree from the U.S. Military Academy and an MBA from Harvard. He served in the U.S. Air Force as a command pilot, staff officer and professional educator.

In 1959 he was appointed the permanent Dean of the Faculty at the U.S. Air Force Academy by President Eisenhower. He served as Dean for the first ten graduating classes from the Academy. Gen. McDermott retired from the Air Force in 1968.

Gen. McDermott has been recognized nationally for his leadership and success at USAA. He has chaired numerous national insurance industry associations including the National Association of Independent Insurers. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Texas Department of Commerce and as Chairman of the San Antonio Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. He was a founder of the World Affairs Council in San Antonio and served as Chairman of the International Leadership Center Foundation in Dallas. In addition, he still serves as a Regional Vice Chairman of the Center for Strategic and International Studies which is based in Washington D.C..

Gen. McDermott has also been honored with numerous awards. He was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in 1987 and the National Business Hall of Fame in 1994. A total of five universities have awarded him with honorary doctorates. Numerous national publications, including Business Week, Forbes, Fortune and U.S. News and World Report, have featured articles on McDermott.

Gen. McDermott has five children and thirteen grandchildren. He and his wife, Marion, reside in San Antonio and Colorado Springs.

JOHN C. DILLER

President/Chief Executive Officer

As the San Antonio Spurs President/Chief Executive Officer, John C. (Jack) Diller is responsible for all operations of the franchise - on both the basketball and business sides - while also serving as the Spurs representative on the NBA Board of Governors. Mr. Diller, who joined the Spurs on May 31, 1994, came to the Alamo City with over 25 years of experience in the world of professional sports.

"My first year as head of the Spurs franchise was about as exciting as any you could dare hope for. From opening night's water cannon, to the NBA's best record, it was a thrilling trip, and one which makes us even more dedicated to having NBA basketball thrive in San Antonio. Serious challenges lie ahead for us in the NBA's smallest market, but the support I have seen in my first year here makes me confident that together we can make it work," Mr. Diller said.

Prior to joining the Spurs, Mr. Diller served as the Executive Vice President, Business Operations for the New York Mets. He was the first person ever to serve in that role with the club and was responsible for all non-baseball activities of the franchise. In addition, he served on the Mets Board of Directors.

Mr. Diller started his career as a lawyer with Simpson Thacher & Barlett in New York before entering the world of professional sports in 1969 when he joined Madison Square Garden as its Vice President for Legal and Business Affairs. At Madison Square Garden he worked with New York's legendary "Mr. Basketball", Ned Irish, one of the NBA's founding fathers. In addition, he served as Vice President of the Knicks during their two NBA World Championship seasons, 1969-70 and 1972-73.

Mr. Diller left Madison Square Garden in 1974 to serve a one-year term as the President of the New York Sports Authority. After spending the next five years in his own communications business practice, Mr. Diller helped found RCTV - a nationally distributed cable television program service - and served as the organization's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer from 1979-84. He then headed marketing ventures in sports and communications, before re-joining Madison Square Garden in 1987 as President of the Madison Square Garden Sports Group. In that capacity, Mr. Diller served on the Garden's Executive Committee and was President of both the New York Knickerbockers of the NBA and New York Rangers of the National Hockey League.

Mr. Diller is an investor in and member of the Board of Directors of the Spurs. In addition, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, and on the Board of the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation.

A 1960 graduate of Georgetown University, Mr. Diller received his law degree from Yale Law School in 1963. He and his wife Holly have three daughters, Raegan, Corey and Mary Clare.

GREGG POPOVICH

Executive Vice President, Basketball Operations/General Manager

It didn't take long for Gregg Popovich to make an impression in San Antonio. Named the Spurs Executive Vice President, Basketball Operations/General Manager on May 31, 1994, Pop quickly turned the Spurs into one of the most feared teams in the NBA. His first big move was bringing back forward Sean Elliott in a trade with the Pistons. He then signed free agents Avery Johnson, Chuck Person and Moses Malone. Next, he named Bob Hill Head Coach. His series of moves was capped on December 26, when the Spurs won a bidding war for free agent guard Doc Rivers. All of Pop's moves paid off, as the Spurs finished the 1994-95 season with a 62-20 mark, the best record in the NBA as well as the best record in Spurs history.

Mr. Popovich first came to the Spurs in July of 1988, as an Assistant Coach under Larry Brown. During his four seasons in San Antonio, Mr. Popovich established himself both on and off the court. In his second season, during the 1989-90 campaign, the Spurs set an NBA record with a 35-game turnaround from the previous year, finishing with a 56-26 mark. The next season the Spurs were 55-27 and won their second consecutive Midwest Division Title.

Off the court, Pop made a strong impact in the community of San Antonio. Thanks to his work, in February of 1992, the Spurs Drug Free Basketball League was honored with a Daily Point of Light Award from President George Bush.

In May of 1992, Popovich joined the Golden State Warriors, as the number one Assistant Coach on Don Nelson's staff. He spent the 1992-93 and 1993-94 seasons with the Warriors, serving as Nelson's right-hand man both on the court and in the front office.

Mr. Popovich started his basketball career as a player. He played at the Air Force Academy and during his senior season was the team's captain and leading scorer. Following his graduation in 1970 - with a degree in Soviet Studies - Mr. Popovich served his five-year military commitment. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces team. In 1972 he was the captain of the Armed Forces team which won the AAU Championship. In addition, Mr. Popovich earned invitations to try out for the 1971 Pan American Team and 1972 U.S. Olympic Team.

Once his playing days were over, Mr. Popovich returned to the Air Force Academy as an Assistant Coach. He spent six years at the Academy before heading to the University of Denver, where he obtained his master's degree in physical education and sports sciences.

In 1979, he was named Head Coach at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, California. He spent eight seasons at Pomona-Pitzer, serving as the team's Head Coach and an associate professor of physical education. During that time - in the 1985-86 season - Pop led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years.

Mr. Popovich - who is a native of Merrillville, Indiana - and his wife Erin, have two children, a son Micky and a daughter Jill.

BOB HILL

Head Coach

Bob Hill's first season in San Antonio was a memorable one. He led the Spurs to a 62-20 mark, which was the best record in the NBA as well as the best record in the team's 22-year history. In addition, under his guidance the Spurs enjoyed their best post-season showing of all-time, advancing to the Western Conference Finals. During the 1994-95 season, Mr. Hill was named the NBA Coach of the Month on two occasions - for the month of February and the month of April - becoming just the third coach in NBA history to earn the honor twice in the same season (Chuck Daly was named the NBA Coach of the Month twice during the 1988-89 season and Don Chaney won the award twice during the 1990-91 campaign).

Mr. Hill was named the Spurs Head Coach on August 29, 1994. This is his third stint as a Head Coach in the NBA. Previously, he was the Head Coach of the Indiana Pacers for two-and-a-half seasons, from 1990-1993, and served as the Head Coach of the New York Knicks for 66 games during the 1986-87 season.

Mr. Hill has a career record of 195-174 as a Head Coach in the NBA.

Mr. Hill, who will turn 48 on November 24, played both basketball and baseball at Bowling Green State University. Following his graduation in 1971 he spent one season playing minor league baseball in the San Diego Padres organization. After being released by the Padres, he began his basketball coaching career as an assistant with Bowling Green during the 1971-72 season.

In 1975, Mr. Hill moved to the University of Pittsburgh as an Assistant Coach and remained there until 1978 when he was hired by the University of Kansas. He served as an Assistant Coach at Kansas from 1978-1985.

During the summer of 1985, Mr. Hill was named an Assistant Coach with the Knicks. He spent the 1985-86 season as an assistant with the Knicks. Then, early in the 1986-87 season, he replaced Hubie Brown as the Head Coach after the Knicks started the year with a 4-12 record. Under Mr. Hill, the Knicks went 20-46 to finish the season with a 24-58 record. At the end of the season he was replaced by Rick Pitino.

Mr. Hill started the 1987-88 season as a scout for the Charlotte Hornets and a broadcaster with the New Jersey Nets. Then, in February of 1987, he was named the Head Coach of the Topeka Sizzlers for the final 17 games of the 1987-88 CBA season.

Mr. Hill headed overseas during the 1988-89 season, serving as the Head Coach of Vitrus Knorr of the Italian League. He led his club to a victory in the Cup of Italy and to the final four of the Italian League Championship. He returned to the NBA in 1989, joining the Pacers staff as an Assistant Coach prior to the start of the 1989-90 season.

On December 20, 1990, Mr. Hill was named the Head Coach of the Pacers, replacing Dick Versace. He inherited a Pacer team with a record of 9-16 and under Mr. Hill the Pacers went 32-25, to finish the season with a final record of 41-41. During the 1991-92 season, Mr. Hill led the Pacers to a 40-42 mark and in 1992-93 the Pacers were 41-41. All three seasons he guided the Pacers to the playoffs and during that span the Pacers were 113-108 under Coach Hill. His .511 winning percentage at Indiana is the second-best career mark in the club's NBA history behind only Larry Brown's career percentage of .604 with the Pacers. In the 1991 post-season, the Pacers posted their first-ever win in an NBA Playoff game, before falling to the Boston Celtics in a five-game series.

During the 1993-94 season Mr. Hill served as an Assistant Coach with the Orlando Magic, when the Magic posted a franchise-best 50-32 record.

Mr. Hill - a native of Columbus, Ohio - and his wife, Pam, have three sons, Cameron, Chris and Casey. The Hill family now calls San Antonio home as they bought a house in the Alamo City in the fall of 1994. The Hills' oldest son Cameron is a freshman with a basketball scholarship at the University of Akron.

SAM SCHULER
Director of Player Personnel

The San Antonio Spurs named Sam Schuler their Director of Player Personnel on June 2, 1994. This is the first time in franchise history that the Spurs have had such a position and there isn't a better person than Mr. Schuler to fill the role. He came to the Spurs after spending the previous six seasons with the Golden State Warriors, serving as the team's Director of Player Personnel since 1989.

In his role as the Director of Player Personnel with Golden State, Schuler earned league-wide respect as the Warriors put together a string of successful draft picks that included Mitch Richmond, Tim Hardaway, Tyrone Hill and Latrell Sprewell.

Mr. Schuler first entered the NBA in 1985 as a scout for Don Nelson in Milwaukee. After spending three seasons as a scout with the Bucks, Schuler joined Nelson in Golden State as an Assistant Coach in 1988.

Prior to that, Mr. Schuler spent 20 years as a high school coach and physical education instructor. Seventeen of those years were spent at Oak Creek High School in Oak Creek, Wisconsin.

Mr. Schuler - who is a native of Blanchardville, Wisconsin - received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1965 from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse. He and his wife Jean have three adult children, Kimberly, Scott and David, and they now live year round in San Antonio.

HANK EGAN
Assistant Coach

This season will be the second in the NBA for Hank Egan as an Assistant Coach with the Spurs.

Prior to joining the Spurs on August 31, 1994, Egan spent 23 seasons as a Division I NCAA Head Coach. For the last ten years he served as the Head Coach at the University of San Diego and prior to that he was the head man at the United States Air Force Academy.

During the 1993-94 season he led USD to an 18-11 mark and recorded his 300th career victory. In his 23 years as a Head Coach, Mr. Egan posted a 304-311 record. Mr. Egan was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the year in 1986-87 when he led the team to a school record 24-6 mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. That season USD posted the best field goal percentage defense in the entire country, limiting opponents to a .401 field goal percentage for the year while giving up just 60.3 points per contest.

In his college career, Mr. Egan established himself as one of the best defensive coaches in the nation. He was the alternate coach to USC's George Raveling for the 1984 United States Basketball Team and was one of the coaches at the 1984 Olympic tryouts.

Mr. Egan is a 1960 graduate of the Naval Academy with a bachelor's degree in engineering. In 1966 he joined the basketball staff at the Air Force Academy as an assistant junior varsity coach. In 1971 he was named the Academy's Head Coach and he remained in that position until 1984 when he was hired by the University of San Diego.

Mr. Egan and his wife, Judy, now live in San Antonio. They have two adult children, John and Kelly.

SPURS 1994-95 SEASON NOTES

The San Antonio Spurs enjoyed the best season in franchise history during the 1994-95 campaign. There were lots of history making - and memorable - events during the season, including a franchise-record 62 wins during the regular season, the MVP Award for David Robinson and the team's best showing ever in the post-season. Here are some of the highlights from the 1994-95 season:

A LOOK BACK: The Spurs finished the 1994-95 season with a six-game winning streak, ending the season with a 97-91 win over the Timberwolves in Minnesota on 4/23...the Spurs finished the season with a 62-20 mark, with a 33-8 record at home and a 29-12 record on the road...their season-ending six-game winning streak came on the heels of a franchise-record 15-game winning streak as the Spurs were 21-2 in their final 23 games of the season...the Spurs started the season with a 7-9 mark...they then won 55 of their next 66 games to finish with a franchise-record 62 wins...the Spurs won 28 of their last 31 home games and 28 of their last 36 road games...during the season the Spurs posted six winning streaks of six or more games: a 15-game streak, a pair of 8-game streaks, a 7-game streak and a pair of 6-game streaks...on the other end, the Spurs didn't lose more than two straight games at any time during the season and they lost two straight just five times.

TOP SPOT: The Spurs finished the 1994-95 regular season with a 62-20 record - the best mark in the NBA...this was the first time in franchise history that the Spurs posted the best mark in the NBA as well as the first time they ever finished with the top mark in the Western Conference...in addition, the Spurs won their eighth Division Title...prior to this year, they won the Central Division in '77-78 & '78-79 and won the Midwest crown in '80-81, '81-82, '82-83, '89-90 & '90-91.

RECORD-SETTING SEASON: With their 98-88 win over the Kings on 4/14 in the Alamodome, the Spurs set a franchise record for the most wins in a season with 57...the Spurs finished the season with a 62-20 record...the previous best record in franchise history was set by the 1989-90 team which finished with a 56-26 mark...the '94-95 Spurs also set a franchise record for the most road wins in a season with 29, finishing with a 29-12 mark on the road...the old record for the most road wins in a season was held by the 1993-94 team which posted a 23-18 mark on the road...in addition, the '94-95 Spurs set club records for the most consecutive games won - with a 15-game winning streak - and the most consecutive road games won - with an 8-game road winning streak.

RED HOT: From early December through the end of the regular season the Spurs were the hottest team in the NBA...here's a look at the Spurs record - as well as the other two hottest teams - after 12/10 after 1/24 and after 2/9 (the All-Star break):

TOP TEAMS AFTER 12/10			TOP TEAMS AFTER 1/24			TOP TEAMS AFTER 2/9
San Antonio:	54-11	.831	San Antonio:	39-6	.866	San Antonio	32-5	.865
Utah:	49-15	.766	Utah:	31-12	.721	Utah:	25-9	.735
Seattle:	46-19	.708	Seattle:	30-16	.652	Seattle:	24-13	.649

MR. MVP: On May 23, the NBA named David Robinson the league's MVP for the 1994-95 season...Robinson is the first player in Spurs franchise history to win the honor...Robinson received 901 points - including 73 first place votes - from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters...Orlando's Shaquille O'Neal finished second with 605 points (12 first place votes) and Utah's Karl Malone was third with 532 points (14 first place votes)...for the season Robinson averaged 27.6 points, 10.8 rebounds, 2.9 assists, 1.65 steals and 3.23 blocked shots per game to lead the Spurs to a franchise-best 62-20 record...the Admiral scored in double-figures in all 81 games he played and had 30 or more 36 times...the MVP Award capped an award-filled season for Robinson...he won the IBM Award, was named to both the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive First Team and made his sixth straight All-Star appearance.

BOB HILL NAMED COACH OF THE MONTH, TWICE: San Antonio Spurs Head Coach Bob Hill was named the IBM NBA Coach of the Month twice during the 1994-95 season (the only coach in the NBA to win the award twice during the season)...Hill was named the Coach of the Month in both February and April...both months the Spurs were 11-2

STRONG SUPPORTING CAST: David Robinson and Dennis Rodman received most of the credit for the Spurs success during the 1994-95 season...but the Spurs two superstars got plenty of help from the team's other three starters...Sean Elliott, Vinny Del Negro and Avery Johnson all enjoyed career years during the '94-95 campaign...Elliott averaged a career-high 18.1 points per game and connected on a career-best 136 three-pointers...Del Negro averaged a career-high 12.5 points and Avery Johnson averaged career-highs in both points, with 13.4 ppg, and assists, with 8.2 apg...AJ became just the fifth player in NBA history to raise their scoring average in each of their first seven seasons in the NBA.

WIN NUMBER 50: This is the seventh time in 19 seasons that a Spurs team has won 50 or more games since the franchise joined the NBA in 1976-77....with a 62-20 record, this year's team set a franchise record for the most wins in a season...here are the Spurs seven 50-win seasons:

SPURS WON SERIES 4-2

SPURS-LAKERS SERIES NOTES: This was the first time the Spurs had ever beaten the Lakers in a playoff series...prior to this series the Spurs had dropped four straight series to the Lakers and were just 2-14 vs. the Lakers in the post-season...neither team shot well in the series - the Spurs out-shot the Lakers 42.5 to 40.0 percent from the field...Dennis Rodman and J.R. Reid were the only players - for either team - to shoot above the .500 mark from the field in the series...Rodman shot 63.2 percent (24-38) from the field in five games while Reid shot 53.3 percent (16-30) from the field...on the flip-side Nick Van Exel (.357), Cedric Ceballos (.385), Eddie Jones (.379) and Anthony Peeler (.381) all shot under 40.0 percent in the series for the Lakers...the Lakers averaged just 88.8 ppg while the Spurs averaged 94.7 ppg in the series...Doc Rivers led the Spurs in steals in the series, averaging 1.33 spg.

LIKING THE LAKERS: David Robinson put up some big numbers in the Lakers series...in the six games he averaged 30.0 points, 15.7 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 3.67 blocks and 1.17 steals in 44.7 minutes...he grabbed a playoff career-high 22 rebounds vs. the Lakers in Game Four (at LA on 5/14) and in two different games (at LA on 5/12 and vs. LA on 5/16) he scored 34 points - just two shy of his playoff career-high of 36...Robinson led the Spurs in scoring in all six games, recording 30 or more in four of the six games.

PLAYOFF NOTES

TOUGH D: The Spurs have used some solid defense to win 9 of their 15 games in the 1995 Playoffs...the Spurs opponent field goal percentage of 43.1 percent was the lowest in the post-season (New York was second with a .432 mark)...in addition, Spurs opponents averaged just 93.7 points per game which was the third lowest mark behind New York and Cleveland... the Spurs held their opponent under 90 in four games (including a franchise opponent record low 71 by the Lakers on 5/14/95).

THE LITTLE GENERAL PLAYS BIG: The Spurs little general - Avery Johnson - played big in the playoffs...in the Spurs 15 games, AJ averaged 14.5 points, 8.3 assists, 2.1 rebounds and 1.33 steals while shooting .517 (91-176) from the field...he set new playoff career single-game highs for points (with 24), FGM (with 10), FGA (with 15), FTM (with 8), FTA (with 12) and minutes (with 49) and tied his playoff career-high with 8 rebounds...in the 1995 Playoffs, AJ ranked sixth in assists...prior to the 1995 post-season his career playoff averages were 5.1 ppg, 4.5 apg and 0.9 spg with a 48.1 FG percentage in 22 games.

MAKING HISTORY: The Spurs set several franchise records in the 1995 post-season...their nine wins are the most ever posted by the team in a single post-season and their string of five straight wins is the longest winning streak ever by the Spurs in the playoffs...in addition, their three-game sweep of the Nuggets in the first round was just the second series sweep in Spurs history...the other came in the First Round of the 1990 Playoffs when the Spurs swept the Nuggets.

KEY DATES IN SPURS HISTORY

OCTOBER 10, 1973

In the first game in San Antonio history, the Spurs fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena . . . Rich Jones led the Spurs in scoring with 25 points . . . the Spurs lost their first four games before claiming their first win on 10/16/73 when they beat the Virginia Squires, 116-106.

JANUARY 30, 1974

After a month of fighting, Angelo Drossos pulled off the biggest deal in Spurs history, purchasing George Gervin from the Virginia Squires . . . the transaction wasn't a simple one due to legal battles between the Spurs, the Squires and the ABA League Office . . . in fact, at one point, the 21-year-old Gervin went into hiding for a week as the three parties battled it out . . . in the end Drossos and the Spurs won, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JANUARY 28, 1975

On this date the city of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game . . . on the West squad were three Spurs, George Gervin, James Silas and Swen Nater . . . but the East team dominated the game, posting a 151-124 win in front of 10,449 in the HemisFair Arena . . . the coaches that night are both now in the NBA, Kevin Loughery led the East while Larry Brown directed the West.

OCTOBER 22, 1976

The Spurs made their NBA debut, beating the 76ers 121-118 in Philadelphia . . . Billy Paultz paced the Spurs with 27 points . . . later in the week, on 10/27/76, the Spurs played their first NBA game in the HemisFair Arena, beating Phoenix 115-106 behind a 41-point effort by Larry Kenon . . . the Spurs finished their first NBA season with a 44-38 record and a trip to the playoffs . . . also making his NBA debut that night was Julius Erving of the Sixers.

APRIL 9, 1978

George Gervin set an NBA record scoring 33 points in the second quarter as the Spurs fell to New Orleans 153-132 in the final game of the regular season . . . earlier in the day David Thompson had scored 73 points and entering the game Gervin knew that he needed to score 58 points to edge out Thompson for the 1978 NBA scoring title . . . Gervin came through . . . he had 53 at halftime and finished the game with 63 points - despite sitting out the fourth quarter - to claim his first scoring title.

APRIL 15, 1983

Spurs announced their All Decade Team . . . on the squad were George Gervin, Artis Gilmore, Mike Mitchell, James Silas and Mark Olberding . . . the Iceman was named the Spurs Player of the Decade . . . the same night Artis Gilmore scored his 20,000th career point.

FEBRUARY 28, 1984

The Spurs retired the number 13 worn by James Silas . . . it was the first number ever retired by the Spurs franchise and Silas earned the honor . . . in his career he appeared in 618 games, scoring 10,290 points and handing out 2,406 assists . . . Silas - who was an original Spur - enjoyed his best season in 1975-76 when he averaged 23.8 points, 5.4 assists and 4.0 rebounds . . . his career was cut short by a knee injury that he suffered in November of 1976.

MAY 17, 1987

The Spurs won the NBA Draft Lottery on this date in New York . . . Bob Bass was on hand with a lucky Red Chameleon . . . the good luck charm worked as the Spurs beat out six other teams and won the number one pick in the 1987 Draft, which they used to select All-Star center David Robinson.

KEY DATES IN SPURS HISTORY

DECEMBER 5, 1987

On this night the Spurs retired the number 44 jersey worn by George Gervin . . . 15,786 were on hand to pay tribute to the greatest player in Spurs history . . . in his 12 seasons with the Spurs, the Iceman scored 23,602 points and led the NBA in scoring four times.

MAY 27, 1988

Red McCombs purchased the Spurs for $47 million, becoming the first principal owner of the franchise . . . the transaction took place after months of negotiations between McCombs and the Spurs original majority owner, Angelo Drossos.

NOVEMBER 4, 1989

In his first NBA game rookie center David Robinson led the Spurs to a 106-98 win over the Lakers in front of a crowd of 15,868 in the HemisFair Arena . . . Robinson didn't miss a beat despite the fact that he had spent the two previous years serving as a Navy ensign, stationed at King's Bay, GA . . . the Admiral finished the game with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

FEBRUARY 6, 1990

The Spurs beat the Atlanta Hawks 105-94 to claim their 20th consecutive win in the HemisFair Arena . . . the 20-game home winning streak is still the longest in franchise history . . . the Spurs finished the season with a franchise-best 56-26 record, including a 34-7 mark in the Arena.

MARCH 26, 1993

On this date a group of 22 investors purchased the franchise from Red McCombs for $75 million . . . the two leaders of the group were Bob Coleman and Robert McDermott . . . the original deal was struck on 2/19/93 between the group and McCombs, then a month later the move - with some minor changes - was approved by the NBA League Office.

MAY 20, 1993

The end of an era . . . after calling the HemisFair Arena home for 20 years the Spurs played their final game in the Arena falling to the Suns 102-100 in Game 6 of their Western Conference Semifinal . . . in those 20 seasons, the Spurs played 893 regular season and playoff games in the Arena, attracting 9,384,395 fans.

APRIL 9, 1995

The Spurs posted a 101-87 win over the Lakers in the Forum to record their 15th consecutive win...with the win the Spurs established a pair of franchise records, one for the longest overall winning streak with 15 straight and the other for the most consecutive games won on the road with 8 straight...the 15 game winning streak gave the Spurs an amazing seven-week stretch in which they won 25 of 27 games.

MAY 23, 1995

On this date the NBA announced its 1994-95 Most Valuable Player - Mr. David Robinson...the Admiral led the Spurs to a 62-20 record - the best mark in the NBA in 1994-95 - and is the first player in San Antonio history to win the award...Robinson was among league leaders in five categories: scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, steals and field goal percentage.

1973-74 SEASON NOTES

- The San Antonio Spurs were formed in the summer of 1973 when the Dallas Chaparrals of the ABA were sold to a group of San Antonio investors and moved to the Alamo City.
- Original ownership group was made up of 27 individuals, led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Art Burdick and Angelo Drossos.
- The first game in franchise history was a 121-106 loss to the San Diego Conquistadors on 10/10/73 in front of 5,879 fans in the HemisFair Arena...the Spurs starting five that night were Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas.
- In November the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virginia Squires in exchange for cash and draft picks...Nater was the Spurs leading rebounder in both 1973-74 and 1974-75.
- On 1/30/74 - in perhaps the biggest move in franchise history - the Spurs purchased George Gervin from the Virginia Squires...the Iceman went on to play in 11 straight All-Star Games for the Spurs.

1974-75 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their head coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star...during the regular season he was 7th in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks...Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game...but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the post-season when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard...Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119...Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season...on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon...in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash...then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz...the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975-76 campaign.

- James Silas - the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season - broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets...the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas...he was the first Spurs ever named to the All-ABA First Team...he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game...the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1905-2337) from the free throw line during the 1975-76 season...five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line...James Silas led the way with a .872 mark, George Gervin shot .862, Allan Bristow had a .848 mark, Coby Dietrick was .829 and Mike Gale shot an even .800.

GEORGE GERVIN 44

George Gervin spent 12 of his 14 seasons in professional basketball with the San Antonio Spurs. And in those 12 years he gave the fans of San Antonio some special memories. He holds the NBA record for the most points in a quarter, exploding for 33 in the second quarter on April 9, 1978. While with the Spurs he captured four NBA Scoring Titles - only two players in NBA history have more to their credit, Michael Jordan and Wilt Chamberlain. In his professional career Gervin scored a total of 26,595 points. He played in a total of 12 All-Star Games and was named the MVP of the 1980 Game - the only player in Spurs history ever to win that honor. The Iceman is still a star for the Spurs today, serving as a Community Relations Representative with the club.

1977-78 SEASON NOTES

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle)...after staring 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason and were able to streak to claim their first NBA Division Title...at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22 game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans...going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title...Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points...but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title...by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points - thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter...the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

1979-80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee...the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle...but Moore - who today is the Spurs all-time assists leader - was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980-81 season.
- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark...on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as head coach.
- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.
- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs...he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest (he remains the only Spur ever to be named MVP of an All-Star Game)...on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73-74 through '92-93...and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

1980-81 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference.
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season...draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs...after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was resigned and led the team in assists in his first NBA season...and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson.
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game...he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State...in the Spurs 131-124 win Johnson set three Spurs franchise records - the most blocks in a game, with 13, the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second, and the most blocks in a quarter, with 6 in the fourth.

1981-82 SEASON NOTES

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas - the last original Spur and team captain - to Cleveland...Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and he is one of just two players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena...the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league...George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg...George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.17 bpg...and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.8 assists per contest.

1984-85 SEASON NOTES

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named Head Coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season...first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie...guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84...then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight...Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash...Mark Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice...and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg...this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring...Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season...Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg...Moore turned in one of the best games of his life vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .515 percent from the field during the 1984-85 season.

1985-86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever...the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short...after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985-86 season...the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest...he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg...he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987-88 SEASON NOTES

• The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court...on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy...on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 draft.

• Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and - before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy - the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.

• The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

• Greg "Cadillac" Anderson became the first player in Spurs history to be named to the NBA All-Rookie team.

1988-89 SEASON NOTES

- On 5/28 Red McCombs became full owner of the Spurs, purchasing the team from his fellow investors for $47 million...one of McCombs first moves was to fire Bob Weiss and hire Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- The Spurs finished the season with the worst record in franchise history...the Spurs were just 3-38 on the road during the year and set a club record with 22-straight losses on the road
- A total of 22 players suited up for the Spurs during the season and Greg Anderson was the only player to appear in all 82 games for the Spurs.
- Rookie Willie Anderson was one of the few bright spots for San Antonio...he was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team and he became the first Spur rookie ever to lead the team in scoring, averaging 18.6 points per game...Anderson was the runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting behind only Mitch Richmond of the Kings.

1989-90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989-90 season...on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson...in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice...and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp...in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents...of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment...in all nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set an NBA record for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88-89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season, joining Ralph Sampson as only the second player in NBA history to claim a clean sweep of the Rookie of the Month award.

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21...on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990-91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 Draft.
- David Robinson was the top voter-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game...Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history of 2/26 with a 102-101 win in overtime over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1991-92 SEASON NOTES

• The Spurs obtained forward Antoine Carr from the Kings on 9/23 in exchange for Dwayne Schintzius...in December the Spurs signed a pair of free agents - Donald Royal and Vinnie Johnson - and waived two popular players - Avery Johnson and Jud Buechler.

• After missing the first six weeks of the season due to a contract dispute, Rod Strickland joined the Spurs on 12/23.

• Following a rough stretch in December and January, Vice President of Basketball Operations Bob Bass replaced Larry Brown as Head Coach.

• On 3/31, in just his third season with the Spurs, David Robinson passed George Gervin and became the Spurs all-time career leader in blocked shots.

• The Spurs season came to a grinding halt when David Robinson went down with a torn ligament in his left thumb...Robinson underwent surgery on 4/1 and missed the final 14 games of the season...with Robinson and Willie Anderson out of the line-up the Spurs were swept by the Suns in the First Round of the playoffs.

1992-93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4...the Tarkanian era didn't last long...on 12/18 - with the team posting a 9-11 record - Tark was fired...24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas...the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.
- The Spurs also made some changes on the court...point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice...other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.
- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.
- The Spurs closed a part of their history-books on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals...the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973.

1993-94 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season...Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively...Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 at Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basket history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang...in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign he scored a Spurs franchise 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24...Robinson is just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season...thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title...Robinson also made history earlier in the season when he became just the fourth player ever to record a quadruple-double...Robinson posted his vs. Detroit on 2/17, finishing with 34 points, 10 rebounds, 10 blocks and 10 assists.

On April 27, 1983, the Spurs beat the Dever Nuggets 129-109 in the Western Converence Semifinals...the night belonged to Spurs point guard Johny Moore...in the second round match-up Moore scored 26 points and dished out 20 assists...the 20 assists by Junior that night still stands as the most ever by a Spur in a playoff game.

Has the weather postponed a Spurs game?...yes...it happened to the Spurs on February 7, 1978...the game was scheduled to be with the New Jersey Nets here in San Antonio...snow was the culprit, but not here in San Antonio...the Nets were snowed in back in New Jersey, and couldn't get into San Antonio in time for the game.

November 4, 1989, is a date no Spur fan should ever forget...on that date the Spurs beat the Los Angeles Lakers 106-98 to open the 1989-90 season...the game was the first in the NBA for David Robinson...the Admiral got his career started with a bang, scoring 23 points and pulling in 17 rebounds...the game would be the first of a brilliant career for the Spurs All-Star center.

SPURS SHORTS

One of the biggest dates in Spurs history is January 30, 1974...on that day George Gervin was sold to San Antonio by the Virginia Squires...before and after the sale there were legal battles that almost kept Gervin from becoming a Spur...but finally the Iceman received clearance to play for the Silver and Black...that season he appeared in 25 games with the Spurs, averaging 19.4 points per contest.

SPURS SHORTS

On December 17, 1983, the Hawks beat the Spurs 113-108 in front of 5,246 fans in Atlanta...but the big story that night was the game within the game as the Hawks held George Gervin to just eight points, ending one of the most amazing scoring streaks in NBA history...before that night, the Iceman had scored in double figures in 407 straight games, the equivalent of five full NBA seasons...the 407-game streak is the longest in Spurs history and the third longest in NBA history.

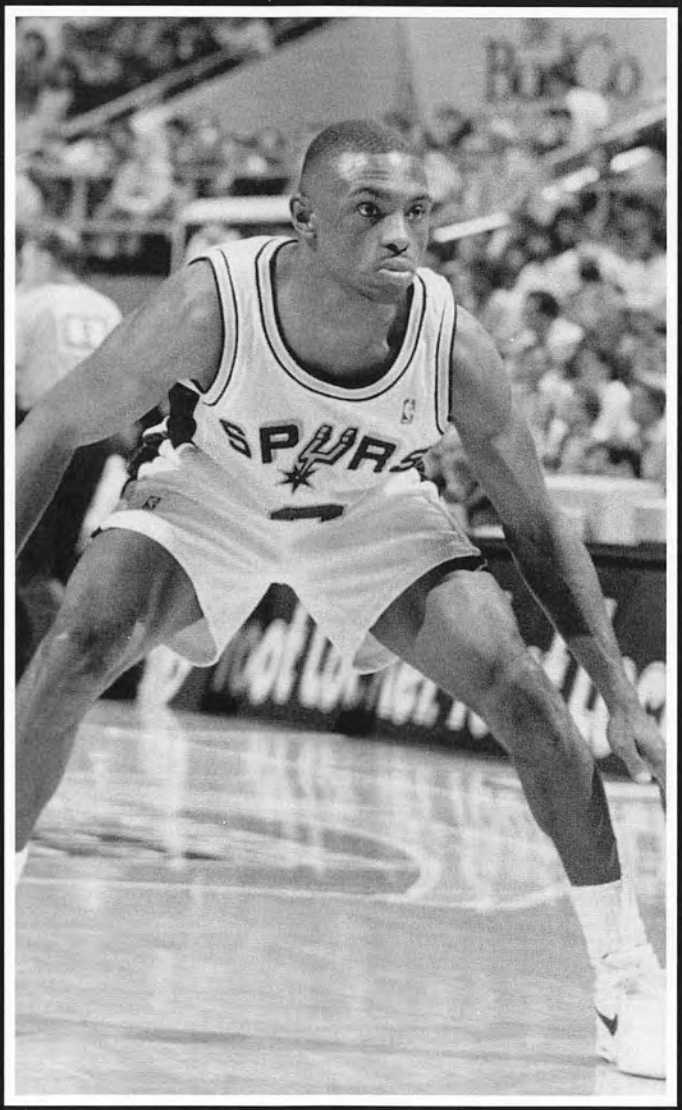
SPURS VS NBA OPPONENTS



SAN ANTONIO SPURS

THE NBA IN THE COMMUNITY

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting programs dedicated to improving the quality of life for all people.

For years, the NBA has created and implemented programs league-wide to address important social issues, with special emphasis on helping young people. This year's youth-based education programs will include: the NBA Stay in School program, created to encourage students to graduate from high school through school visits by NBA players and coaches; and conflict resolution workshops designed to train teachers and educate students in methods to resolve conflict without resorting to violence. Public service announcements and educational materials will also focus on anti-violence/conflict resolution message.

The NBA continues its support of CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse and Special Olympics through television and radio public service announcements and other awareness-building efforts. The NBA also creates PSAs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month each year.

In addition, the NBA's 29 teams are making a difference, across the United States and Canada, through active involvement in a multitude of outreach efforts pertinent to the needs of their respective communities.

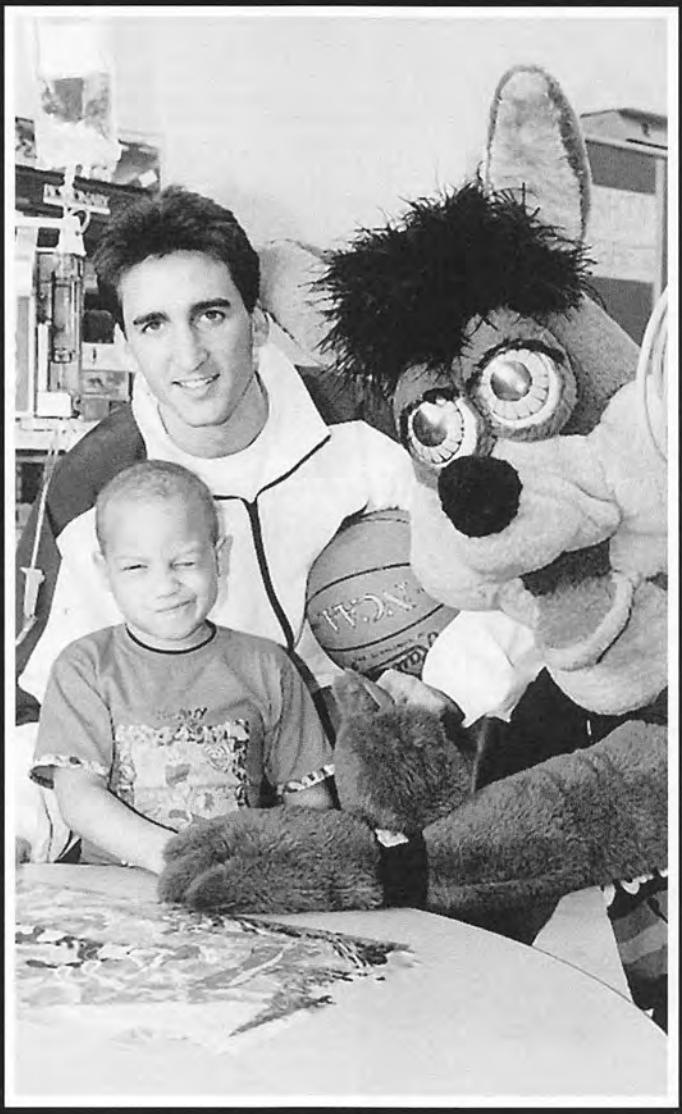
SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY



SPURS FOUNDATION

AN OVERVIEW

Created in 1988, the non-profit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for a variety of children's charities in South Texas. In 1994-95, the Spurs Foundation raised and donated more than $375,000 via charitable grants, scholarships, recreational and educational youth programming, charity tickets and Spurs memorabilia. During the past six years, over $1.4 million has been donated to deserving children through organizations which provide for basic, recreational and medical needs.

Each year the Spurs Foundation's Board of Directors selects non-profit children's organizations to receive grants and benefit from numerous special events and publicity throughout the season. The following are the Spurs Foundation's 1995-96 featured youth charities:

Any Baby Can

Each year Any Baby Can provides support for 1,000 chronically ill and disabled children and their families. The Spurs Foundation will help fund the cost of exercise equipment for children with cerebral palsy (CP) served by Any Baby Can. Studies indicate that some types of exercise for CP children produce physical and emotional benefits such as improvements in mobility and self-esteem.

Elf Louise Christmas Project

This non-profit organization is an all-volunteer project in its 27th year which annually provides Christmas gifts to 32,000 local children. Funds from the Spurs Foundation will be used to purchase a new computer system to maximize the family application process and avoid duplication among other local Christmas toy projects.

Santa Rosa Children's Hospital

Santa Rosa Children's Hospital annually provides quality inpatient and outpatient care to 80,000 sick and injured children from 90 area counties without regard to race, religion or ability to pay. The Spurs Foundation's grant will help fund Santa Rosa's Helmet Distribution and Awareness Campaign which hopes to significantly increase usage of bicycle helmets. Helmets would alleviate 90 percent of all biking-related injuries (70 percent of which occur to children between the ages of five to fourteen). To help lower this percentage, children from families who are not financially capable of acquiring helmets will be targeted first.

Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives (RMYA)

The organization exists to provide care for youth in crisis. To fulfill this mission, RMYA provides emergency shelter care, long term residential care and counseling services to emotionally disadvantaged youth, who have been impacted by problems such as abuse, runaway and homelessness. The Spurs Foundation will provide funding for the renovation of an Outdoor Therapeutic Recreational Track for use by the residents of RMYA Meadowland's campus. The renovation of the track, which was built in 1986, will provide for a greater variety of healthy, non-competitive, safe outdoor recreational opportunities.

The Spurs Foundation raises its funds through three major annual events: the Spurs Scramble Charity Golf Tournament, the Spurs Tip-Off Luncheon and the Spurs Spring Gala and Auction (April 12, 1996).

RECREATIONAL YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Spurs Drug-Free Basketball League

The Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, formed in 1989, is a non-school, no-charge basketball program for boys and girls between the ages of 9-16 which delivers a strong anti-drug message in addition to teaching basketball fundamentals.

A cooperative effort between the City of San Antonio Parks and Recreation Department, the YMCA and the Boys and Girls Club, the league is designed to motivate and inspire students from low-income, inner-city neighborhoods to pledge to remain drug and alcohol-free by signing an I.D. card. All participants are required to show their i.d. card and recite an anti-drug pledge before every game.

Volunteer coaches lead the January to March league with bi-weekly team practices in preparation for the weekly game. The league is sponsored by Diamond Shamrock in San Antonio and by Whataburger in Austin and Corpus Christi. Over 8,000 youth participated in 1995 and a similar number is expected for the 1996 league.

SPURS FOUNDATION

Midnite Basketball League

The Spurs Foundation is pleased to announce that 1996 will mark the fourth straight year of the Spurs-Pizza Hut Midnite Basketball League. Each year over 300 at-risk young men and women, ages 17 to 25, follow NBA rules and wear NBA style jerseys in this recreational nine week league. The participants play in recreation centers between the hours of 11 p.m. and 2 a.m. in the four quadrants of the city which are always filled with large crowds of young spectators. Volunteer coaches include off-duty police officers and community leaders.

Each year, the Midnite Basketball League has successfully taken some 300 young men and women from lower income areas of our city off the streets and onto basketball courts offering a positive alternative to gang-related activity. Moreover, more than 100 young spectators have regularly attended the late night games at each site to rally for their peers. The large crowds translate into an additional 300 to 400 young people off the streets on weekend nights.

Merging community and commerce, the San Antonio Spurs, the Spurs Foundation, Pizza Hut, the Kids Sports Network, the San Antonio Police Department and the Police Athletic League continue to react to alarming gang statistics with positive recreational alternatives for participants and spectators to deliver the message that being involved with gangs is not the right path to follow.

PROJECT GOAL

PROJECT GOALS AND OBJECTIVES AFFECTING LIVES

The Project GOAL educational program, co-sponsored by H-E-B and chaired by David Robinson, annually reaches approximately 300,000 students from San Antonio area school districts as well as students in Austin, Kerrville, Seguin, San Marcos, Fredericksburg, Corpus Christi, New Braunfels and Laredo. The program's objective is to encourage students to stay in school, stay away from drugs and "be the best that you can be." Project GOAL, which takes the form of several successful programs, was presented with the Texas State Teachers Association annual Human and Civil Rights Award during their annual convention on April 29, 1994.

Mister Robinson's Neighborhood

Each season, more than 5,000 students (kindergarten through high school) are nominated by their teachers in recognition of a variety of achievements ranging from attitude and grade improvement to staying in school and remaining drug-free. A total of 1,200 students from area elementary, middle and high schools are selected to receive a pair of tickets to sit in "Mister Robinson's Neighborhood" at a Spurs game, a Mister Robinson's Neighborhood t-shirt and an achievement certificate. David Robinson and the Spurs Foundation purchase these seats for his "Neighborhood of Achievers."

Last year, five special achievers were flown to watch the Spurs April 20 game in Dallas courtesy of Southwest Airlines and returned with Robinson who signed autographs and shared inspirational words.

Coyote Kids

The Coyote Kids, an educational program geared for pre-kindergarten through third grade students, is a troupe of six students from local colleges who emphasize the importance of self-esteem, good decision-making as well as the values of education, self-image, safety and health in their 30 minute song and dance performance.

The troupe, now in its fourth year, visits two area public elementary schools each week performing for over 30,000 students during the season. Visits are scheduled through each district's drug education coordinator. The Coyote Kids' auditions are each July and each member of the group receives a $2,000 scholarship from the Spurs Foundation.

NBA's Stay in School Program

NBA STAY in SCHOOL

The National Basketball Association's Stay in School program was created in 1989 to address the critical problem of dropouts. The program was designed to utilize NBA players–who are among the most recognized and respected heroes of sports–to positively influence the attitudes and self-esteem of young people while promoting a heightened interest in learning and school. Since national statistics indicate that middle school students suffer the highest drop-out rates on a national basis, the Spurs program targets more than 110,000 South Texas middle school students by encouraging improvements in the areas of attitude, attendance, achievement, behavior and citizenship.

As the host city to the 1996 NBA All-Star game, this season middle school students will participate in the "NBA's National Stay in School" program. Every middle school will receive Stay in School visits from Stay in School spokesmen, incentive items, be eligible to participate in contests and get tickets to attend the All-Star Stay in School CELEBRATION. This culminating event will include NBA All-Stars, celebrities from music and television and other exciting entertainment. While celebrating students' achievements in the program, the event will include important messages on the importance of education.

SPURS FOUNDATION

Conflict Resolutions Seminars

This season, the NBA and Spurs will host four one-day highly interactive Stay in School Conflict Resolution Workshops conducted by Educators for Social Responsibility. The one day workshops are designed specifically for teachers, counselors and school administrators and will cover classroom-tested approaches for teaching young people how to resolve differences in non-violent ways. The Spurs conducted a successful conflict resolution seminar last season for representatives of each of San Antonio's fifteen public school districts.

Recognition Program

The Spurs recognize the important role teachers play in the lives of children and are pleased to publicly applaud those whose efforts go above and beyond the call of duty for their students. The 1995-96 season is the third year of the Spurs Teacher Recognition Program. One teacher and a guest is invited to and recognized at each Spurs home game where they are featured on the Jumbotron scoreboard and receive a plaque acknowledging their teaching excellence in the school system.

Spurs Foundation Awards $30,000 in Scholarships

The Spurs Foundation, in partnership with corporate sponsors, is pleased to offer scholarship funding to graduating high school seniors and current college co-eds in the Spurs market area who exhibit not only good grades but also leadership and involvement in extracurricular activities.

Through the Bank of America-Spurs Foundation Scholarships, 12 Bexar County high school seniors receive $1,000 scholarships toward their freshman tuition at the college of their choice and on-court recognition. Each scholarship winner is selected based on academic excellence, motivation to succeed, outstanding recommendations and community orientation.

The Spurs Foundation also awards each of the six members of the Coyote Kids troupe, a $2,000 scholarship. During the 1995-96 season, $5,000 in scholarships will be awarded through the Sylvania Spurs Foundation Scholarship program and two $500 Texas Interscholastic League Foundation scholarships will be funded by the Spurs Foundation.

Fannie Mae-Spurs Form "Home Team"

The Spurs and Fannie Mae teamed up to for the "Home Team" in October 1993. The partnership was developed to educate and revitalize San Antonio's Eastside. With funds from the Fannie Mae Foundation and Spurs Foundation six new houses have been constructed and one renovated to date. Six families are now enjoying the American dream of home ownership.

In the 1995-96 season, the "Home Team" will continue its educational campaign and plans to construct at least six new homes. Neighborhood Housing Services, a non-profit organization which provides housing for low-and moderate-income families, secures the sites, oversees construction and secures homeowners for the houses.

Spurs Wheelchair Basketball

The Spurs Wheelchair Basketball Team, a member of the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA), functions as a resource for rehabilitation (both physical and emotional) and competes throughout Texas and the United States. Through a donation from the Spurs Foundation, the team received new uniforms which they wear when they play games and scrimmage during halftimes of Spurs home games.

SPURS FOUNDATION

Coyote Clubhouse

For each home Spurs game several hundred special Spurs fans fill the Coyote Clubhouse in Section 135. These fans are children whose wishes and dreams come true as they get to see their hometown heroes and the Spurs Coyote in person. For a donation of $2,100 or $4,175 (payable to the Spurs Foundation), a block of $11 and $22 seats will be purchased and distributed to underprivileged youth in South Texas for each Spurs home game. The donor may select the charity recipients and will receive front row floor seats for the game sponsored as well as recognition on Jumbotron during the game. For more information on the Coyote Clubhouse, please contact the Spurs Community Relations Department at (210) 554-1414.

Former Spurs Greats Stay Active in the Community

One of the Spurs best backcourt combinations reunited for the benefit of the community. George Gervin, the Spurs all-time point leader, and Johnny Moore, Spurs all-time assist leader, are both working full-time assisting the youth of San Antonio as Community Relations Representatives.

In his 12-year career with the Spurs, Gervin scored 23,602 points and holds virtually every club scoring record. In all, he holds or has tied over 55 club records, including most points in a season and career and most consecutive games in double figures. Gervin's NBA scoring average of 26.2 per game ranks seventh on the all-time list.

Moore, who played with the Spurs from 1980-89, led the NBA in assists in 1981-82 with 9.6 per game and had his best year in 1984-85 when he averaged 12.8 points, 10.0 assists and 4.8 rebounds in 82 games.

Both Gervin and Moore have taken their on-court presence and leadership abilities out to the San Antonio community. They represent the Spurs at various charity and South Texas events as the Spurs primary community speakers. During the 1994-95 season, the duo made over 400 charitable visits on behalf of the Spurs.

For information on booking George Gervin or Johnny Moore for an upcoming event, please send a written request to the Spurs Community Relations Department in care of the Appearance Coordinator at 100 Montana, San Antonio, Texas 78203-1031.
